

Yadavindra Public School, Patiala- Admission Procedure

Pre-Admission Information

Yadavindra Public School is a member of the Indian Public Schools' Conference. It is an English medium co-educational residential school.

The school prepares students for the Indian Certificate of Secondary Education (Class X) and the Indian School Certificate (Class XII) Examinations conducted by the Council for the Indian School Certificate Examinations, New Delhi, which is successor to the Local Examinations Syndicate of the Cambridge University (UK)

Boys and Girls are admitted to

Junior School at the age of 5 ½ years (into Class I)

Senior School at the age of 10 ½ years (into Class VI)

Admission to the Boarding House starts from Class IV at the age of 8 ½ years.

Admission Procedure:

1. PRIOR REGISTRATION IS AN ESSENTIAL CONDITION FOR ADMISSION and the children can be registered for any academic year as per the choice of parents.
2. PRE REGISTRATION FOR ADMISSION CLOSES ON 31st JANUARY OF EACH YEAR.
3. Registration for classes IV and above is open only for BOARDERS.
4. Children registered for admission are called for pre-admission assessment as per school rules.
5. Registration is valid only for the year and class for which it is made.
6. Pre-admission for Class I will be intimated separately.
7. Those who do not qualify or are absent for the pre-admission process will forfeit the registration.
8. The list of students selected for admission is put up on the School Notice Board after two days of the conduct of the Pre-Admission process.
9. Pre-admission process for other classes (IV to IX) will take place in the second week of January. Admission will be offered only against vacancies, if any.
10. A candidate will be allowed to join the Pre-admission process only if the Registration Fee is paid. No change from Boarder to Day Scholar status will be permitted under any circumstances. A parent wishing to make such change will have to withdraw the child.
11. The norm of class-age relationship is given below:

Class I - 5 ½ years

Class VI - 10 ½ years (Age is calculated as on 31st March of the year of admission) No admissions are made in Class X or Class XII.
